

GREETINGS

TOMMYANTO KANDISAPUTRA
Artistic Director of JWCF
President of Bandung Choral Society

Greetings!

Bandung Choral Society presents new international choir festival in Jakarta, Indonesia. After the successful holding Bali International Choir Festival every year since 2012, more than 5000 participants in 2019, the next Jakarta World Choir Festival will be another stage of international competition in capital city of Indonesia.

Nowadays, Indonesia is recognized by worldwide as one of country where the choirs received various achievements as well as the charm of the beauty of music, the artistic quality and the appearance. This is also in line with many choir competition and education activities. Now, it is the time we present a wider and quality choir stage for participant from Indonesia and world.

In Jakarta World Choir Festival, choir participant can choose their participation; competition and non-competition where choir can participate not only for compete but also can perform in evaluation, friendship concert or participate in education activities and collaboration.

We invite choirs from Indonesia and the world to come and to enjoy the festival with singing together, reach great achievement and build friendship through the art of singing choir. Jakarta as a Megapolitan City attract many tourism from all over the world which it will be interesting place for all of you.

Organizing the choir festival with various interesting activities will bring a joyful choir celebration.

See you in Jakarta!
